Privacy Policy

Scarborough Dine and Dance (SDD) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information that you provide to us.

This statement explains our policies and practices regarding the use and disclosure of your personal information by SDD.

Personal Information. This information may include registration data (your name, address, email address, phone number, title, etc.). In general, you can visit our website without providing us with any personal information but when you contact us through the website contact page certain personal information will be requested.

Purpose of Personal Information. We intend to use such information for purposes of supporting your membership of SDD, by contacting you directly by post or e-mail and by designing its website content so that is suitable to your needs. This Personal Information may be retained to create a Member profile to better serve our Members, or to simply contact you either electronically or otherwise. If you decide to change your Personal Information please contact the Secretary.

Disclosure of Personal Information. SDD will not sell, trade or transfer Personal Information to third parties.

Accuracy and Security. The accuracy and security of the Personal Information is important to SDD. Currently you may review and request updates to your Personal Information by contacting the Secretary. If you contact us to correct your Personal Information, we will attempt to correct such inaccuracies in a timely manner. SDD is concerned with the security of your Personal Information and is committed to taking reasonable steps to protect it from unauthorized access or use. We implement procedures to maintain accurate, complete and current Personal Information.

External Links. The SDD website provides links to other third party websites. SDD is not responsible for the privacy policies or practices or the content of such external links. These links are provided to you for convenience purposes only. You use them at your own risk.

General. If you have questions regarding our Privacy Statement, please contact the Secretary or leave a message through our website contact page www.scarboroughdineanddance.co.uk
